Helps Urban Students into the Outdoors with Donation to Camp Compass Academy

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Lincoln, NE)—Larry the Cable Guy's Git-R-Done Foundation recently partnered with Cabela's Outdoor Fund to donate $20,000 to The Camp Compass Academy. Camp Compass is a nonprofit program developed for urban, disadvantaged youth by award winning educator John Annoni. His staffs of volunteer mentors are making a difference in the inner city by providing outdoor youth activities. The children involved are helped with life through a structured program fostering self-esteem, providing role models and influencing positive choices.

"What Camp Compass is doing is pretty amazing," said Larry the Cable Guy. "Not only are they educating our youth about the wonders of the outdoors, they are acting as positive role models for these at-risk kids. If you inspire a child early, the sky is the limit for their future!"

Camp Compass is a unified effort to introduce urban, middle & high school students to various outdoor activities. During these sessions students will be introduced and networked to community businesses and working role models. The consequence will be an educated and influenced population understanding conservation, sportsmen's philosophies and their activities.

"It just continues to amaze me that the work we are doing continues to be noticed by very inspiring and notable people. This kind of support makes you believe you can change the world and we will continue to do just that with our structured system", stated John Annoni.

The warm hearted donation came just before some of the Academy's students headed to Lake Ontario to fish. "Some students are going fishing for a reward that was earned and we all can be proud of that", Annoni remarked.

About the Git R Done Foundation: The Git-R-Done Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization created by Larry the Cable Guy and his wife, Cara, as a focal point for the family's philanthropy in 2009.
